Sunshine Lady

In October, Get Well cards were sent to Peggy Kohler and Sandra Yingling who both had surgery.

In November, a Thinking of You card was sent to Fay Spangler, whose husband has been ill.

If anyone would like me to send a card to a guild member to brighten their day, congratulate them, or just to let them know we, from our guild, are thinking of them, please let me know. I'll be happy to spread Sunshine from our guild.

Happy holidays to you all.

Fondly,

Your Sunshine Lady,

Cindy Hodge

As Sunshine Lady for the guild, it is my duty to correspond to members of the guild who are in need of condolences, encouragement, and/or congratulations. In order to do this, I rely on each of you to inform me when a member is in need. I will then mail them a card on behalf of the guild expressing support, encouragement, and best wishes. If you know someone who could benefit from such a correspondence, please feel free to contact me at longarmlady1@gmail.com, (717)676-5649 or, in person.

Letter from the President:

Fellow Quilters,

My year as President is coming to an end at the January meeting. It was a year of fun and some challenges that fellow members helped me through. I enjoyed getting to know members more personally.

I enjoyed it so much I am planning speakers for 2021 and also working on vendors for the 2020 Quilt Show. So you are not getting rid of me!

Speaking of the 2020 Quilt Show, there will be lots of opportunities for volunteers to help. One area needing help is with vendor hospitality so they feel very appreciated. Let me know if you can help.

Mark your calendars now for the 2020 Quilt Show on Friday May 29 and Saturday 30, 2020!.

I am looking forward to our November Quilt Retreat. Thanks to Patsy Hartnett for organizing this fun time for our Guild.

REMEMBER OUR GUILD IS GREAT WHEN WE ALL PARTICIPATE!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year !!!!!

Joanne Hammen

York Quilters' Guild Minutes, Sept 2019

MINUTES FOR YORK QUILTERS' GUILD, OCTOBER, 2019

President Joanne Hammen called the meeting to order on October 17, 2019, at 7pm.

Our next meeting combines the November and December meetings and is scheduled for December 5th.

Darlene Schardt, 2020 Show Chair, passed out information regarding changes in categories for quilt entries. These new categories will be reviewed at the completion of the 2020 show.

So far 16 guild members will be displaying their first quilt next to a recent quilt at the show. If you are interested in joining this group, please see Darlene.

Darlene also reviewed other plans for the upcoming quilt show: a garden show planned by the York Garden Club, the boutique and consignment shop, vendors, a charity corner, an appraiser, and a volunteer sign up list starting in January.

The next show meeting is November 19, at Colonial Manor, at 6pm.

Cheryl Dawson, membership chair, announced there were two guests. She is also looking for a new membership chair for 2020. Cheryl would be willing to work with the new chair.

If you need some motivation to complete your many UFO's in 2020, consider signing a UFO contract with the guild. You would list the number of UFO's you plan to complete and agree to pay the guild $5 for each project not completed. See Cheryl Dawson if interested.

Barb Wilke and Anne King are in charge of the charity raffle baskets at the 2020 quilt show. If you have any items to donate, please give them to Barb or Anne.

Sue Kappes reminded everyone the quilts for the homeless shelter are due at the next meeting, December 5th.

The guild challenge, Making a Grand Entrance, is due in April, 2020. Contact Sue Kappes if you have questions.

Members displayed items at Show and Tell.

The mystery quilts were revealed. Each participant illustrated and explained how they interpreted a pattern from the same written clues.

Respectfully submitted

Recording Secretary

Challenge Quilt — April 2020

This is a reminder to be working on your challenge quilt. So far mine is just in my mind with a few photos of doors and gates in my phone. I kept my eye open for interesting doors while on vacation this fall. The theme is: Making A Grand Entrance. I've requested that the challenge quilt be due in April 2020, as I will be out of town in March. I look forward to how everyone interrupted this theme.

Charity Quilt

I hope everyone has had a chance to finish your charity quilts and to get them quilted. I would like them to be at Show and Tell for the Nov/Dec guild meeting. I will deliver them to the homeless shelter in December. From what I saw being made at the sewing day, and from the ones I quilted, the shelter will be receiving beautiful quilts.

I will be happy for suggestions for next years charity project.
