

York Quilters' Guild
YORK, PENNSYLVANIA

March 2021

Letter from the President:

Well friends it's MARCH, I hope this news letter finds you well and quilting. I've been trying to finish some UFO's myself. As some of you may have noticed last month. I was sitting in front of a postage stamp quilt with a house border. I should have that quilt top finished to share in the show and tell this month.

In January I said I was going to share some of my YouTube shows that I have been watching. Since COVID a lot of wonderful designers and YouTube posters have been sharing daily and weekly projects. I love it. One that posts every day is Pat Sloan. She has free sew alongs and free patterns. One top I have finished is Traffic Jam. I encourage you to try a free sew along with what you already have in your stash. It was really fun. To see a quilt top come from what you already have. Another one I enjoy is the Last Homely House, Kate is in England and does a lot of wonderful things. She quilts, knits and cooks. Maybe it's her accent that I find relaxing. Not sure but for some reason I look forward to her Sunday posts. Stay tuned for more because I've found myself not watching as much TV as I do YouTube.

Keep Quilting
Tena

Retreat News

We plan to go forward with the Spring Retreat at Bongiorno Conference Center this year, although we still need to keep the number of attendees down due to the ongoing threat of Covid. In order to allow for social distancing, I believe 10-15 people would be a safe number.

The Retreat is April 23-25, 2021. The meeting room is the same as usual, and there will be at least one other group on campus. You may arrive anytime after 9:30 am on Friday, and the room will be available to us until 5:00 pm on Sunday. There is no smoking and no alcohol allowed on campus. Single rooms are $215, double rooms are $180 per person, and triple rooms are $155 per person. This is the same pricing as the last Fall Retreat.

To sign up, please send an email to me at leencindyg@gmail.com and let me know you want to come and if you will be rooming with someone. Then send a check to me-

Make the check out to The York Quilters Guild for the full amount of your room. I must have it by April 1.

Call or email me with any questions at 717-515-9050.

Please have reservations by 4/1/2021. Since we can only have 15 people, get your registration in early to ensure a spot.

York Quilters' Guild Zoom Meeting Minutes 2/18/21

President Tena Wolfe started the Zoom meeting at 7 pm. There were 40 participants. We had a short business meeting. Cheryl Dawson reported that 75 members have renewed to date. A 2021 Membership Directory will be printed at Staples and sent to paid members.

Joanne Hammen reported that Eva Weber will present the March program on making "bosom buddies", a protective seatbelt strap cover. Cindy Leen reported the spring retreat will be held April 23-25, 2021. 10-15 participants are allowed. Six people have signed up so far. Darlene Schardt, 2022 Quilt Show chair reported that the show will be held at the Grumbacher Sports facility at York College. They had checked some other facilities, but decided to use the college facility. Jill Coleman and Barb Wilke are creating the show quilt. We still need a Vice President and a 2022 program planner.

Judy Stultz presented the show and tell slide show. The members had beautiful projects.

Cheryl Dawson presented the UFO Challenge PowerPoint. There were 10 participants who completed 26 projects and had 11 unfinished. Five prizes were given.

Tena Wolfe demonstrated how to make a very versatile zippered pouch.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 pm

Sunshine Lady

As Sunshine Lady for the guild, although I have sad news to share this month, I am also grateful that the list is not long.

In February, a Sympathy card was sent to Donna Sheffer for the sudden death of her husband early in the month. Please keep Donna and her family in your thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. I know she must be overwhelmed and heart broken.

A Thinking of You card was sent to Connie Bernhard who is undergoing chemo and immunotherapy treatment for cancer. Connie was a new member of our guild. Unfortunately, Connie Bernhard has passed away. A Sympathy card was sent to her husband on behalf of the guild. I met Connie late in 2020. She was new to our guild and was a very nice lady. She told me she had recently been diagnosed with stage 4 lung and brain cancer and was going to be treated with chemo and immunotherapy. She had a positive attitude. A short time later, Connie contracted COVID-19.

With the COVID-19 pandemic still lurking, please stay vigilant with all precautions to keep yourselves and your families safe from its wrath.

Stay calm and quilt on!

Best regards,
Cindy Hodge, Sunshine Lady

As Sunshine Lady for the guild, it is my duty to correspond to members of the guild who are in need of condolences, encouragement, and/or congratulations. In order to do this, I rely on each of you to inform me when a member is in need. I will then mail them a card on behalf of the guild expressing support, encouragement, and best wishes. If you know someone who could benefit from such a correspondence, please feel free to contact me at longarmlady1@gmail.com, (717)676-5649 or, in person.
